Change of Enrolment Policy

Full-time and part-time students may withdraw from a full semester course prior to the ninth week of classes (please check the current semester's calendar for exact date).

A student may withdraw from a course by submitting this form to the Student & Academic Services team. It is understood that every student should confer with his or her instructor and academic advisor prior to withdrawing from a course.

Withdrawal from University

A student who would like to withdraw from the University officially should complete an official withdrawal form. Student who are withdrawing should carefully note the following:

- Readmission at a later date is not guaranteed; an application for readmission should be submitted to the Admissions team.
- Students readmitted to the University after a withdrawal are held to the academic requirements in effect at the time of their readmission.
- Students who do not officially withdraw but cease to attend classes are considered enrolled and will receive failing grades. Students will be responsible for all fees associated with the classes they are enrolled in regardless of attendance.
- Students who plan to complete the semester but do not intend to return the following semester should complete their withdrawal forms prior to their last final examination dated effective after the end of the semester.
